

Dromkeen

Winner of the prestigious Newbery Honor Book Award, author of teenage fiction and co-author of Guiding the Gifted Child...

Stephanie Tolan

“... joy in reading made me want to be a writer, and from the time that I was nine years old, I never doubted that I would be one.”

Gifted Workshops

Monday, 7th April

Accessing the Magic of Your Imagination

A workshop for students who are gifted creative writers.

- * Explore the ups and downs of the creative process.
- Share your experiences.
- Discuss how play is closely related to the creative process and ways around “writer’s block”.

A LIMITED NUMBER OF PLACES AVAILABLE COST: $150
(Includes a paperback copy of one of Stephanie’s young adult fiction books and a place at the Parent session for the adult accompanying the student)

A special note for students
This workshop is for you if you know that creative writing is your real strength and if you believe that writing will always be part of your life even when you are an adult – if you believe that one day you will be a published author or poet or playwright, even if you haven’t told anyone else that that’s what you hope. Stephanie Tolan understands exactly how you feel.

Raising Your Gifted Child: What’s Your Story?

A workshop for parents. Our first parenting task is to recognise the special needs of gifted kids This session will deal with ways to meeting these needs whilst empowering children from within. COST: $60

Bookings Required:

Contact Gifted Resources at www.giftedresources.org or Ph: 9724 2452

Stephanie Tolan will be hosted in Australia by GIFTED RESOURCES.
You can find all the details of Stephanie’s tour on the GIFTED RESOURCES website
For more about Stephanie herself, see her website, www.stephanietolan.com