Gifted Resources News

Getting the 2013 wheels turning

Time to get to wheels rolling for 2013.
Time to think about the strategies for teaching and resources for parenting gifted students.
Time to think about reserving dates on the calendar for conferences, workshops and PD seminars.
Time to find like minds, locate support groups, build a PLN, for support and encouragement.
Time to consider creative, artistic or recreational projects and activities for your own enjoyment and renewal.
Time to set the wheels in motion!

WHAT'S IN THE IN TRAY?

These items have been received recently and can be found in the In Tray which is located on the Home page of Gifted Resources Website www.giftedresources.org If you are not able to access the links here please go to the In Tray to access them.

If you would like information included in the newsletter and/or the In Tray please send to contributions@giftedresources.org

First GT Chat for 2013 on Twitter

Join Global #gtchat Powered by TAGT on Twitter Friday at 7PM ET/6PM CT/midnight UK for our first chat of the New Year. We'll be discussing what you want to talk about in 2013 and guests you'd like to have at chat. We will also be revealing who is already scheduled to be on #gtchat and some exciting topics to be tackled in the upcoming months. We'd love to see you there!

That is Saturday 11.00am for Victoria Australia

For details about how to #gtchat see <http://www.txgifted.org/gtchat>

Kids Like Us is expanding in 2013 to meet the needs of the twice-exceptional youth of Australia. Following on from the publication of the Inquiry into the education of gifted and talented students and the subsequent Victorian Government's response, and the AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT'S RESPONSE TO RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE DYSLEXIA WORKING PARTY REPORT: HELPING PEOPLE WITH DYSLEXIA: A NATIONAL ACTION AGENDA; the need to inform and support teachers, parents and society as a whole about the simple yet highly complex needs of twice exceptional young people is more important than ever, as schools struggle to understand the needs of these amazing and challenging individuals.

Kids Like Us has launched courses aimed at schools, teachers, parents and students in 2013, as well as continuing with 1:1 counselling, group tutoring, assessment and peer-to-peer support.

Courses are available through the website www.kidslikeus.org.au or send enquiries to "enquiries@kidslikeus.org.au" and include details of your interest in:

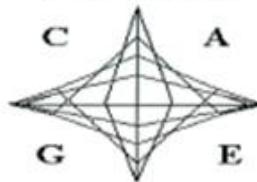

- Professional Development courses for schools and teachers (available across Australia).
- Courses directed at caregivers, aimed at supporting positive parenting of twice-exceptional children. This will include becoming skilled, equipped and prepared to advocate for their children. (Available across Australia)
- Courses aimed at high school students, which teach the skills to navigate the challenges of personal organisation, essay production, research skills, revision, exam techniques and self advocacy (Available in the Bayside area of Victoria).
- A five-week 'self-help' course allowing growth in understanding of yourself as a gifted person. Attendees will be enrolled in a course with others of the same age. Please ask for details.

TAG - Tasmanian Association for Gifted Conference

6-8th September 2013

Igniting Talent: Toddlers to Teens

Tag invites you to explore ways to:

- * Maintain children's passion for and excitement of learning;
- * Develop potential into talent; and
- * Cater for gifted students within the Australian Curriculum.

We are thrilled to have received confirmation today that Professor Nicholas Colangelo, director of the Belin Blank International Center for Gifted Education and Talent Development at The University of Iowa and co-author of The Nation Deceived: How Schools Hold Back America's Brightest Students will be a keynote speaker for the conference. To have someone of Professor Colangelo's calibre as part of our program is exciting and sets the scene for a conference that will offer something for everyone, parents and educators of students of all ages.

Michele Juratowitch, as an invited speaker has confirmed her participation, so look forward to presentations about gifted students and video gaming as well as parental advocacy.

We will be calling for abstracts for presentations, so spread the word to anyone who would be interested.

We welcome anyone who has any time or skills to share in the organisation of this event. Please email tasgifted@gmail.com and let us know of your interest

A Nation Deceived Panel

A special event upcoming on Tuesday 15 January 2013 1:30pm - 4:00pm. GERRIC has the pleasure of hosting a panel on A Nation Deceived: How Schools Hold Back America's Brightest Students, The Templeton National Report on Acceleration. This report was written in 2004 by Professor Nicholas Colangelo, Professor Susan G. Assouline, from the Belin Blank Center at the University of Iowa, and the Director of GERRIC, Emeritus Professor Miraca Gross, all of whom will be on the panel.

A Nation Deceived highlights disparities between the research on acceleration and the educational beliefs and practices that often run contrary to the research.
